

Cherry Video Highlights

- Opening shot is a cherry orchard
- Cherry shakers work in pairs...cherries are shaken on the tree and then moved via conveyor to a different wagon
- Cherries are then processed by washing the cherries, taking out the pits, and removing the stems
- Cherries are packed into large containers that are trucked to other factories that make them into cherry foods
- The containers are cooled using cold water via hoses.